

STATE MILITIA MAINTAIN PEACE AT LAWRENCE, MASS.

SEVEN COMPANIES OF TROOPS PREVENTING DISORDER IN MASSACHUSETTS CITY.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Jan. 17.—Armed peace prevailed in this city yesterday. Seven militia companies maintained order in the mill district and the improvement in conditions made it possible to open every mill in the city except three. The strike spread to four worsted mills in North Dover where 260 operatives struck.

Picketing was carried on at nearly all the mills on a peaceful persuasion basis. Only two arrests were made.

An effort was made yesterday to start the cotton and woolen mills, around which there were scenes of rioting by strikers yesterday. A small number of operatives appeared for work under the militia guard, but up to 8 a. m. there had been no interference by the strikers. It was stated that the authorities had the situation well under control.

Dudley M. Holman, secretary to Governor Foss, held a conference yesterday with Joseph J. Ettor of New York, who is at the head of the strikers, in an effort to bring about a settlement.

While this conference was going on Mayor Scanlon and Col. Swartz of the Eighth regiment, who is in command of the militia, were in consultation at the armory regarding the patrol of the mill district for the day.

By order of Mayor Scanlon all the saloons were closed.

The Everett, Pemberton and the Lawrence Duck mills, employing about 4000 hands, were closed. In the remainder of the mills about one-fourth of the average number of help started work.

SURGERY OF THE SCISSORS.

The wife of a prominent lawyer in a western city was ordered by her physician to a sanitarium for treatment in preparation for a surgical operation. Her husband saw her safely established at the hospital, with her sister and maid in attendance, to do some necessary sewing for the invalid; then he departed on a short business trip, with strict instructions to the doctor not to perform the operation until his return.

Upon receipt of the first letter from his wife, he returned post haste, and encountering the doctor at the hotel door, angrily demanded to know why the operation had been performed before notifying him.

"Your wife has undergone no operation, to my knowledge," replied the puzzled physician.

"Then what does this letter mean?" demanded the lawyer, and producing the alarming document, which read: "Dear Joe: I am glad you brought me here before you left. Everybody is so nice to me here. They cut out my kimonos yesterday and had it sewed up before I knew anything about it. I am feeling better already."—Ely Record.

NEVADA UNIVERSITY TO BE HEAVILY ENDOWED

According to the San Francisco Examiner, Clarence Mackay is planning to raise a $1,000,000 endowment fund for the University of Nevada, the money to come from children of the bonanza kings of the Comstock. It is said that pledges have already been secured from some of them. Mackay, who is the son of John Mackay, will head the list, and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, formerly Virginia Fair, and James Flood and J. V. Coleman, nephew of O'Brien, are expected to fall into line handsomely. Ogden Mills is also said to be a party to the plan that will mean so much for the university.

ENJOYABLE HOP AT K. OF P. HALL LAST EVENING

Last evening the Knights of Pythias gave one of their social dances in their new hall, which was another one of those enjoyable evenings for which the Knights have become famous locally. These social dances are not put on as "money-making affairs" but purely for social enjoyment.

Since the completion of the new Pythian Temple building, with its magnificent hard-wood floor, the Knights have appointed a "standing entertainment or social committee," which is changed every three months, each committee vying with the former committees to give the best social entertainments.

The Pythian order is not purely a business aggregation, but a social order, maintaining club rooms, that members of the order may have reading association with other members and visiting brethren of the order. The club rooms are always open. The motto is "We threw the key away."

Every alternate Tuesday and every Saturday evening there will be "something doing" in the Pythian hall. Each succeeding one will be more enjoyable than the last. With the completion of the new downstairs banquet hall banquets will be served from time to time, and every one is supposed to be considered an invited guest any time there is a social affair.

The general public, who desire to spend an enjoyable evening, are always invited, and every one is requested to pass the word along to their friends, whether members of the order or not.

Come enjoy a dance upon the finest hard-wood floor in the state of Nevada.

Each committee aims to make these entertainments self-supporting, and ladies are free, and a small entrance fee charged to gentlemen to cover cost of orchestra.

"TAKING HIS MEDICINE" IS A FUNNY ONE

LOUD AND LONG LAUGHS ARE PROMISED BUTLER PATRONS FOR TONIGHT.

If you want to laugh long and loud go to the Butler theater tonight and see "Taking His Medicine." It is the funniest and most mirth-provoking comedy ever produced by the Biograph company. Lazy Lou feigned sickness to keep from cutting wood, so the old man called in the only doctor in the neighborhood, who was a horse doctor. Next you will see "Bronch Billy's Adventures," at the Tavern, where he has stopped to spend the night. "Fatal Posing," Pathe drama. Last on the program will be seen that great Edison topical subject, "Brockton Fair and the Horse Show."

Tomorrow will be shown the greatest of the Vitagraph productions, "Vanity Fair," complete in three reels, suggested by the great novel of William Makepeace Thackeray.

NEW YORKER AND WIFE IN MIXUP IN CITY OF DIVORCES

RENO, Nev., Jan. 17.—E. C. Batten, a former New Yorker who claims to have come to this city for the purpose of organizing an interstate board of trade, is today having considerable trouble with his wife, Theresa K. Batten, who arrived in Reno Sunday night and who is said to have immediately hunted him up. Yesterday afternoon he filed a suit in the justice court for the replevin of a trunk he claimed belonged to him. His attorney, Mark Waiser, states that Batten will also file a suit in the district court praying for a divorce on the grounds of cruelty. In his suit to be instituted in the justice court the attorney for Batten says that his client will ask for $200 damages, as well as for the return of the trunk, now said to be in Mrs. Batten's possession.

It is claimed by parties interested in the case that Mrs. Batten, on her arrival here Sunday night, registered at the Golden hotel and then visited Batten at the St. Albans hotel and that since that time she and Batten have had considerable trouble. Yesterday morning she visited the police station, accompanied by a friend, and later met her husband and his attorney there. Just what went on in the police station is not known, but it was not long after Batten left the police station that his attorney prepared the replevin action.

It is alleged that Mrs. Batten is the daughter of Louis Kessel, a prominent New York broker, and that she was the former wife of David Rothschild, who was mixed up in a bank scandal in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Batten are said to have been married in Des Moines in July, 1909.

Batten is organizing what is to be known as the interstate board of trade, which is to be an association for the benefit of merchants of Nevada and other states.

Why Send Out of Town for Your Printing

When you can have first-class work done right here, by first-class union printers.

The business man who sends out of town for his printing injures his own business as well as that of others. While on the other hand the man who patronizes home institutions increases the town's pay roll, and thereby builds up his business.

The printers and book binders in the cities of surrounding states do not come here to spend their money.
